DESAILLES, YALE GRIDIRON LEADER, IS SUED BY WIFE

Romantic Marriage to Rich Chilean Girl Comes to Sudden End.

New York, July 28.—The romance of the Yale quarter back and the Chilean heiress, which has won them much notoriety in the past, came to an end publicly yesterday when Mrs. Blanquita Erazuiz de Saullles filed suit in the supreme court for a divorce from John Longer de Saullles, captain of the Yale football team in 1901, close friend of President Wilson and member of the real estate firm of Heckscher de Saullles at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-seventh Street.

The filing of the suit brings to light the fact that Mr. and Mrs. de Saullles have been separated for some time, and that Mrs. de Saullles came here recently from her home at Valparaiso, Chile, for the purpose of arranging for the divorce action. While the papers in the case are sealed, it was learned that Mrs. de Saullles names two correspondents, described as women unknown to her. The acts of misconduct are alleged to have occurred in several cities in the last few months. It is understood that one of the women involved is a young actress appearing in a beauty show, who has been declared one of the most attractive women on the stage.

Mr. de Saullles' engagement to the daughter of Senora Blanca Erazuiz-Versara, one of the wealthiest women in Chile, was announced by de Saullles himself in December, 1911, in letters to friends in this country. Senora Erazuiz-Versara and her daughter had gone to Paris in October of that year, and de Saullles followed them in December, 1911, in letters to friends in this country. Senora Erazuiz-Versara and her daughter had gone to Paris in October of that year, and de Saullles followed them in December, 1911, in letters to friends in this country.

CHARTER DRAFT READY SOON FOR COMMON COUNCIL

Committee Expects to Have It Completed Early In September.

The committee appointed to draft a proposed commission form of government charter expects to have that document ready to submit to the common council at its first meeting in September. The committee will hold its final meeting to ratify the final draft of the charter August 25. The mayor may submit the charter to the people for ratification not more than 30 days or less than 60 days after it is offered. In his last annual message he intimated that he considered the charter was of such importance that it ought to be voted on at a special election instead of at the national elections when other questions which were being decided might overshadow its importance.

A vote of 20 per cent. of the registration will be required on the initiative, the referendum and the recall according to the provision to be inserted in the commission form of government charter. The committee appointed to draft the charter met again yesterday in the office of Judge John S. Pullman, chairman of the commission. It had first been suggested that 60 per cent. of the registered vote be required but when the light vote which is registered at special elections was considered it was decided to make the required vote 20 per cent.

Under the proposed commission charter the board of education, which will be a separate body of five members, is given authority to sell or dispose of school property, the proceeds to go into the school fund instead of the city treasury. The board has also the power to buy school property.

In the event of a deadlock between the commissioners in filling a vacancy on the commission the city auditor is empowered to cast the deciding ballot. The city auditor will be an officer separate from the commission. The tax assessors will be appointed by civil service. Two commissioners will take the place of the board of relief to hear appeals from the decisions of the assessors. They will sit alternately.

OLD RESIDENT HERE INVITES INVESTIGATION

Mr. Max Fredrick 1995 Barnum Avenue, Stratford, Says Lax-a-Tone Will Stand Investigation.

The reason that we have given local testimonials is that the Lax-a-Tone man at Hartigan's drug store, is that we want to back up our statements by positive evidence given by those that have taken it and Mr. Fredrick, who is a well known resident, will verify this testimonial if called upon to do so. He says:

After the Senate had confirmed the appointment of de Saullles resigned the post and explained that his business interests here made it impossible for him to accept. It is understood that his declination of the post came as a surprise to his wife, who had gone to South America before him and expected him to join her there.

Mrs. de Saullles is the niece of a former president of Chile and of Raphael Arrauk, at one time Chilean Minister at Rome. Her mother has been known in Chile as "the Star of Santiago" because of her great beauty.

De Saullles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur de Saullles of South Bethlehem, Penn. His father was Major on the staff of General Polk of the Confederate Army. He is the cousin of ex-Mayor McClellan and Capt. Philip M. Lydig, and a nephew of John G. Heckscher and Mrs. Stephen Van Rensselaer. He is 37 years old, and a member of the Union, Brook and Yale clubs. He makes his home at the Yale club. He has been voted one of the most popular men that ever graduated from Yale. His cousin, G. Maurice Heckscher, is his partner in the real estate business.

Mr. de Saullles refused to discuss the case when seen at his office yesterday afternoon other than to say: "It is a most unfortunate affair."

He said that the suit would be defended by O'Brien, Boardman, Harper & Fox, Lytle Fox, of the firm, who will handle the case, is out of the city.

GRAMIGNA AIDS IN SANITATION DRIVE

The appointment of John Gramigna, 1,382 Stratford avenue, as one of the inspectors of the health department is highly gratifying to the members of the new Italian-American Political league. Mr. Gramigna is the local representative of La Opinione, a newspaper printed in Philadelphia in the Italian language.

The service of Mr. Gramigna was highly desirable because of his great acquaintance among Italian-speaking people and the influence for better sanitation that he can exercise. It has been hard for the health department, because of difference in language, to get good results in the colonies of foreign-born persons, and the assistance of Mr. Gramigna is making this work much easier.

The executive committee of the league will meet tonight to arrange plans for the mass meeting to be held in Arion hall on Sunday afternoon.

RUSSELL COMING TO U. S.

London, July 28.—Bertrand Russell, who recently was fined for publishing pamphlets criticizing the manner in which the government treated conscientious objectors to military service and who later was deprived of his lectureship at Cambridge University, has been issued a passport to visit America. He had been invited to lecture at Harvard University. Russell's wife was formerly Miss Alice Smith of Philadelphia.

A TOBACCO MAN'S ROMANCE

(New York Sun)

As some cigarette smokers may know, the best Turkish tobacco is grown in what was formerly European Turkey, in that country, southern Macedonia, where the Bulgars and the French and Serbians are now tramping the fields into blood soaked mire. Up among the rocks of the mountains that separate southern Albania from the Monastir district there is soil in which grows tobacco so fragrant that it was never exported at all until recently, but was consumed entirely by the Turks of high rank, including the Sultan himself. Such tobacco would bring as high as $25 a pound—five Turkish liras.

It is a peculiar fact that it was through the late King Edward of England that Turkish tobacco became famous over the rest of the world. Forty-five years ago a poor Armenian, who made a scanty living in London by making cigarettes received a visit from a stranger who had heard of his cigarettes from a club friend. They had a chat, and the stranger told him was about to leave Constantinople for the Armenian on the excellent quality of his tobacco, and inquired why he did not open a store. The Armenian replied that he had not the necessary capital.

"Oh, that doesn't matter," replied the stranger cheerfully, "here's my card. Go and take a shop." And then he walked out. The poor cigarette maker smiled and shook his head, until he happened to glance at the card. He understood then that his visitor had been the Prince of Wales.

With the Prince's card he had no difficulty in raising the necessary capital, for a big trade was assured him; and until the day of his death King Edward remained one of his best customers.

The poor Armenian's trade grew rapidly and he sold his Turkish cigarettes to most of the crowned heads of Europe.
